Set in Tampah Hills with unobstructed 180° views of the sea and mountains. Designed by Caceres Tous as a family holiday home.

The house sits on a steep hillside, anchored between two ridges that carry the lower level, where the bedrooms are. This frees a large, flat level above for the pool and a spacious open pavilion under a metal and timber roof, inspired by traditional layang-layang kites. Dark interior tones draw the eye outward, so the house acts as a frame for the view.

Nearly everything inside was custom-designed and made for the house, from built-in beds, kitchens and bathrooms to sofas and dining tables. In the main seating area, a custom sofa sits beside a hand-carved coffee table that adds an Indonesian touch.

A one-of-a-kind home, woven into its landscape, and a quiet vantage point over Lombok.
